CM3 1250

Packing: 180 or 360 caps.

BEST EBAY PRICE !

TREC CM3 1250 is premium-grade creatine monohydrate bounced with malic acid, resulting in three creatine molecules to every one molecule of malic acid. This formula makes for a highly-absorbed and very effective form of creatine supplement for fast, effective results.

The combination of CM3 means you benefit from best-quality creatine with an enhanced level of energy production but typically will experience none of the water retention issues associated with simple creatine supplements.
